

Maine Cohort for Customized Learning

Designing a Standards-Based, Customized Learning Community: A Consortium

Sept. 23 & 24 and Nov. 5 & 6, 2013

Bea McGarvey is a Maine native who dedicated a 30-year career to Maine schools. She has served in the past decade as a distinguished education consultant for more than 100 schools and districts, as well as state and federal education agencies, specifically in the areas of teaching and learning, leadership, and organizational development. Currently, she is a partner in Total Leaders Associates and a senior associate at Marzano Research Lab. McGarvey is co-author with Charles Schwahn of "Inevitable: Mass Customized Learning – Learning in the Age of Empowerment."

District/School Teams

Location: T & B Celebrations Center,
Waterville, Me.

Times: 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Purpose of the Consortium:

- To present the Customized Learning Vision for Maine Schools
- To increase the capacity of Maine educators to implement Standards-Based Education

Outcomes:

Teams will increase their understanding of the components of true Standards-Based Education, specifically

- What the STRUCTURE looks like...
- What the CURRICULUM looks like...
- What ASSESSMENT looks like...
- What GRADING looks like...

Costs: Teams of 6 members = $2,550
($375 for additional team members)
Individuals: $425/person

Register at:

[https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/
MCCLConsortium2013](https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/MCCLConsortium2013)

If the registration link does not work please use a different Internet browser or email:
Linda Laughlin: lLaughlin@rsu18.org